

Emergency Response Procedures for Managing Life-Threatening Allergic Reactions

1. Remain with the student.
2. Administer medication (epinephrine, antihistamine, or inhaler-bronchodilator) as appropriate.
3. Call 911.
4. Notify school nurse, school administration, and student's parent/guardian.
5. Monitor airway, breathing, and circulation until EMS arrives.